NOTICES

THURSDAY CLUB

We had a very enjoyable time last week with Henavek Cornish Fiddles, but our numbers are declining. Would any-one over 50 be interested in joining us? Once a month we have a communion service, but other weeks we have different types of entertainment, always followed by a cuppa, biscuits and chat. The charge is just £1.50 per session. Please speak to Shirley, Sandra G or Patricia for more information. Our programme is on the noticeboard, with further copies in the foyer.

Riverside Singers will be holding a charity event for Drama Express at 7.30pm at All Saints. An eclectic mix of folk, traditional Cornish, pop and world music, plus short plays by Drama Express. Free admission, refreshments and retiring collection.

DIOCESAN ROADSHOW

'Responding to God's Grace' - the roadshows this year are aimed at those who care about the future of the church in Cornwall and see themselves as active disciples, seeking to contribute to the life of the church and to the discovery of God's Kingdom. Being a follower of Jesus is about responding to what God has already given us in terms of his unconditional love, his forgiveness, his involvement in our lives and his overwhelming generosity. In this year's roadshows, we will look afresh at what God's grace involves, and explore five practical areas in which our responses can be grounded.

Our nearest roadshow will be held at 7pm (refreshments from 6.30pm) at St Erme Community Centre, Cattle Field, Trispen on 31st October. Do come if you can. Jeremy will be happy to arrange lifts for those needing them.

LET CHRIST IN

Christian Business Networking for Cornwall will be holding breakfasts on the 1st Wednesday of each month at the Lemon Street Market – Fig Café, Truro from 8 – 9am, cost £7.50. Please contact Jeremy for further details.
