CHARITY AUCTION FOR THE TRURO LIFEHOUSE - THE 10 10 PROJECT
We are holding a charity auction at The Fig Café in the Lemon Street Market Gallery on Friday 22nd March. We are aiming to have 40-50 high quality products or services on offer and will be selling tickets to the event. At this stage we are aiming to build a list of auction items, so if any one knows of a company that could provide an item then could you please either ask them direct and pass it to the church office or pass the details (including a contact name) to the church office and we can follow it up.

CHARITY GOLF DAY AT TRURO GOLF CLUB.

In the spring we are looking at holding a charity golf day at Truro Golf Club. If anyone could give up a small amount of time to help organise the day as part of a small team or be available to help on the day then please pass your details to the church office. (We will also be looking for people to pay in teams of 4 on the day!)

SHARING FAITH STORIES From Jan 13th and over the next few months as part of our Prayer and Discipleship we want to look at everyone's faith story and to collate these to get to know one another better and build up a bank of stories so that in years to come your story might affect someone else in their pilgrimage or journey of faith. We will be doing this in all sorts of ways, from group discussions, one to one interviews, art, music, film, allowing everyone to express their faith story in a way that is meaningful to them.

CLERGY ROBING SURVEY Since the revision of Section B 8 of the Church of England Canon Law in July 2017, Parochial Church Councils are able to decide for the local church whether vestments are a necessary part of our worship in the local church in its promoting of the mission of the Church. It is therefore a topic for discussion at our next PCC meeting on the 16th January. In order to inform this discussion, please fill in a survey sheet available at the back of the church.

PRAYER AWAY DAY 26TH JAN The theme this year is telling our faith story, including time for quiet and a celebration of the eucharist. Pasties can be pre-ordered or bring your own lunch.

SUN 6TH FEB 6-8.30pm Worshipping Friends return to lead a contemporary worship and prayer evening.
